budget is set to kick-off Tuesday morning at a breakfast at the Midwest West Cooperative Oil Mill Guest House at 7 a.m.

The Council provides for the institutions in our community the things they cannot provide for themselves such as training for the volunteer leaders, advancement awards that the Scouts earn, camping facilities at Camp Tonkawa, a program of Camporees, Expositions and activities, a Scout Office where records of the various troops and boys are kept and serves as a service station for all of the Scout Units in the Council.

MRS. E. M. WILSON NAMED HEAD OF JONES COUNTY SEAL DRIVE

Mrs. E. M. Wilson has been named seal chairman of Jones County at a recent board meeting of the Jones County Tuberculosis Association. At this meeting plans were made for the Christmas Seal Campaign.

The Tuberculosis Association has only one means of getting support for their work with tuberculosis in Jones County, and that is from Christmas Seals through mail. There is no door to door soliciting.

It was announced that Steve Donahos, nationally renowned illustrator, was appointed as national honorary Christmas Seal chairman. Donahos is famous for his illustrations on the Saturday Evening Post. He has personally suffered from tuberculosis in 1932 and a relapse in 1941. His younger brother, Bert, and a younger sister, Irene, and his wife's brother died of TB. Donahos is very devoted to his work with tuberculosis.

The Jones County Tuberculosis Association is working through the schools by giving patch tests to detect any cases of tuberculosis that may be present and by giving X-rays to those who are unable to pay for them and to see that they are properly treated.

Lions Sponsor Father-Son Banquet

October 18, 1935

The Lions Club cordially invites the fathers and sons of Hamlin to the "father and son" banquet Thursday evening, November 1, 1935 at seven thirty o'clock.

An outstanding speaker will be present and there will be stunts for the boys.

Remember the date and watch for further announcements.

Now fess. You can't make more racket about being forced to observe the parking line now than you did when you found the cars were so parked in the best places in town just far enough apart by an inch to keep you out. Remember that won't you?

By co-operating with the parking lines suggestion Hamlin streets can accommodate at least a few more cars than the old "scattered out" way we used to park.

Visitors in Hamlin have learned that they MUST not leave their cars parked in the middle of the street, and this leaves the street open and clear. Now by using the white lines room to get in and out and not skin a shin, bump your legs, or have a door slammed into your face, like in other days, because there was no room.

June Leeper, president of the Palava 4-H Girl's Club has been helping her mother can this summer. She has helped can four bushels of pears, and 24 nings by herself 2 bushels of gallons of peaches. Besides can-pers and one and one half bushels of peaches and 18 quarts of different kinds of jellies.

of homemaking classes.

The Junior class is making plans and arrangements for the annual Halloween Carnival to be held October 27, at the high school, 1:30 until 9:30 p.m. Tickets will go on sale at 6 o'clock which will entitle the holder to a vote for Queen of Hamlin High School. Everyone must have a ticket. Various entertainment and refreshment booths will also be featured at the carnival.

The game played Friday night October 12, with Throckmorton cost the Pipers the services of Joe Weir, star end, and netted the Hamlin team the short end of a 12-6 score.

Weir played a stellar game before his arm was broken in the second period of the game. He was taken to a Haskell hospital by his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Weir where his arm was set and placed in a cast. X-ray showed the elbow of his left arm was fractured.

Miss Kathryn Gardner, a teacher in the Odessa Schools, and Miss Frances Gardner, a student at McMurry College in Abilene spent the weekend here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Gardner.

STATE CAPITAL

AUSTIN—City officials of Texas are serving notices on the next Legislature that "something's got to give."

"Three-fourths of the people live in cities, and they should have three-fourths of the vote," said Deer Park Mayor Jimmy Walker after being elected president of the Texas Municipal League Mayors, Councilmen and Commissioners Association.

Walker referred to votes in the Legislature, due for re-districting since the 1960 census. In the past 10 years Texas had had a sharp population shift from rural to urban which is not reflected in the make-up of the present Legislature.

Given representation according to their populations, the city officials believe they can "cure many inequities."

One of the first things they would like to have is broader taxing powers. State law now restricts cities to the property tax.

Many city officials believe that the pyramiding growth and expenses of urban areas make new revenue sources necessary.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH UPHELD—State Supreme Court has reaffirmed its own earlier ruling of "accidental death" in the case of a man who died from a blood clot on his brain after watching his office records burn.

This means two insurance companies must pay double for policies on the man's life, which provided for double indemnity in case of accidental death.

Decision was 5 to 4 by the court.

Majority opinion said that the "viewing of the fire produced a wholly unexpected, unusual and unforeseen catastrophe."

Dissenting opinion said that the case would bring up all sorts of confusion, such as whether a heart attack caused by excitement from watching a football game or TV show was "accidental death."

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR SA—Supreme Court ruled that the City of San Antonio has the right to make another try in court for water from the Canyon Dam Reservoir.

San Antonio's effort to get some water from the dam being built by the Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority has been going on for years.

State Water Board turned down the city's request which is vigorously opposed by GRBA. San Antonio appealed the Water Board decision to district court which rejected the appeal, saying, in effect, that it was too late since construction of the dam had already begun.

Supreme Court held that San Antonio was entitled to a trial of the case on its merits in district court. If the district court should decide that the city should get some of the Canyon Dam water, the case will go back to the Water Board to decide how much it should get.

"SALOON CLUBS" UNDER FIRE—State Liquor Control Board has set a hearing October 24 on proposed new regulations for private clubs selling liquor by the drink.

Bona-fide private, non-profit clubs are not the target of the proposed new rules, said Liquor Board Administration Coke Stevenson Jr.

It's aimed, he said, at "fly-by-night operators" who give away memberships cards or have only the flimsiest sort of organizational set-up as an excuse for selling liquor by the drink.

New rule would require all clubs to have a private club registration permit, to be renewed annually. To get the permit, the club would have to have dues or fees, exclusive of liquor charges, sufficient to pay rental, insurance, taxes, repairs, etc., on its premises.

Liquor dealers would be forbidden to deliver liquor to any club without a permit.

Stevenson said there are probably more than 1,000 clubs providing liquor by the drink in Texas.

TEXTBOOKS CHALLENGED—"As the twig is bent, the tree's inclined"—which led a group of citizens from over the state to come to Austin to challenge proposed public school textbooks they felt might incline youngsters the wrong way.

J. Evetts Haley of Canyon headed the group called the "Texans' Committee for Education" which appeared before the State Textbook Committee. Haley, an arch-conservative, ran for governor in 1956.

Haley's committee objected to references in the proposed texts to persons they regarded as "subversive" and to what they called "left-wing comment." Some books, they said, encouraged "government doles" by picturing farm subsidies in a favorable light.

Members of the State Textbook Committee, made up of teachers, said that any favorable reference to proven subversives would be taken out of any books recommended for state adoption.

TEXAS-ALASKA AGREEMENT—Texas and Alaska, the big two of the United States, have worked out a "visiting privileges" agreement for motorists from the two states.

Texas vehicles can operate in Alaska up to 90 days without additional registration charges and Alaskan cars, trucks and buses may do the same in Texas.

State Highway Engineer De Witt C. Greer announced the agreement. He said Texas now has reciprocal passenger car agreements with all other states and truck and bus agreement with all but six states.

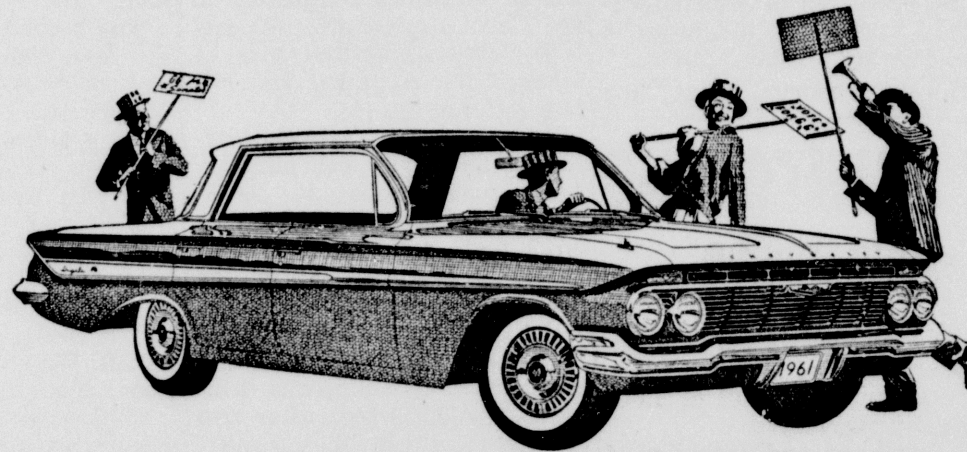

SHORT SNORTS — Governor's Advisory Commission on Finance knocked down one of the favorite themes of the optimistic—that the state has enough money in special fund to offset the shortage in the general revenue fund. Month by month, the balances in the statutory special funds would not cover the general revenue fund deficit, said a commission Bill Alcorn has announced the report . . . Land Commission appointment of Jack Giberson as chief clerk of the General Land Office . . . Howard L. Alno will become engineer of secondary roads for the State Highway Department beginning October 15. He succeeds Perc S. Bailey who is retiring after 36 years with the Highway Department . . . Texas Employment Commission notes a drop both in job holders and job seekers. Unemployment dropped by 3,800 to a 176,700 total, says TEC, while total employment slipped by 23,600 to 3,504,100.

NORMAN CARLTON FARM
... 320 Acres

Last Week's 'Mystery Farm' Owned by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carlton of Route 2

Last week's "mystery farm" is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carlton of Route 2, Hamlin. Formerly known as the "Old Smith Farm," the Carltons purchased the place in 1943.

Carlton is employed as a ginman at Farmers Co-op Gin and farms 117 acres in addition to the 320 acres on the farm he owns.

Mrs. Carlton is the former Johnnie Cozby. The couple was married November 12, 1932. They have two children, a son, John Wallace, of Stamford and a daughter, Mrs. Tommy (Milbra) Greenway of Oil Center, New Mexico.

The Carltons are members of the First Baptist Church here where he is a deacon.

Carlton's hobbies include the raising of cattle and farming while Mrs. Carlton enjoys taking care of their home and gardening.

A new home was built on the place eight years ago and this year a bedroom was enlarged and converted into a den. Other improvements include a gravel driveway and a new barn.

Around 20 head of Hereford cattle are kept and crops include cotton, maize and wheat. The couple plans to continue improving the farm and to expand outdoor buildings.

TWO NEW VARIETIES OF RYE NOW AVAILABLE TO PRODUCERS

Two new varieties of rye, Gator and Elbon, will be available to producers during the 1961 growing season, according to Kirby Clayton, County Agent.

Outstanding characteristics of the new varieties include: Early Forage Production, Improved Disease Resistance, Cold Tolerance and High Total Forage Production.

Gator rye was developed from plant introductions from Uruguay, Argentina and Brazil. It has an upright winter growth habit, matures earlier than Abuzzi, is resistant to leaf rust, stem rust and powdery mildew, has large light brown seed and makes good early production.

Elbon rye was developed at Ardmore, Oklahoma from Abuzzi rye. Elbon has an upright growth habit, intermediate height, large soft stems, large brown seed, early production and maturity. It was developed for disease resistance, but rust did not occur on it during the development stages in Oklahoma.

Both Gator and Elbon have been tested for forage yields for 3 years at numerous locations. These varieties produced about twice as much early forage as Mustang oats and 200 to 300 pounds more forage per acre than Alamo, a spring type oat variety.

Gator and Elbon mature in early spring and therefore make less spring growth than the winter type oat varieties. However, their total production is about as good as the better oat varieties. Both varieties had an average production of 4800 pounds of air dry forage per acre at 7 locations for 3 years while Mustang oats produced 4100 pounds. Gator and Elbon showed no cold damage at Denton and Mt. Pleasant during 1959-60. These were the only varieties among more than 20 small grains that made sufficient growth during the cold, dry periods in January and February for harvest.

Gator is adapted for forage production where small grains are grown for forage except possibly on the High Plains. Elbon is adapted for forage production from Central Texas northward. Both varieties may be damaged by close grazing, especially in early developmental stages.

Foundation seed for Gator and Elbon rye will be released in the fall of 1960. Certified seed should be available for planting in 1961. Certified seed growers may be obtained from the Foundation Seed Section, Texas Agricultural Station, College Station, Texas.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

STAY A FRIEND—DON'T INTERFERE

Dear Amy:

I know a lady whose husband, for a year or more, has been going out with another woman. She knows he does. They have grown children and they know it too. She and the children are respectable. They don't approve of what he is doing even though he acts as if nothing is wrong—just hoping that he will change and stay home and take over the responsibilities of the home and pay his debts instead of spending his money on this other woman.

Everyone knows that he is neglecting his good family. Is his wife doing right by going on and living a life like this, hoping that he might change?

Should a friend talk to her and try to help her, or just let her go on living this kind of life and lose the respect of her friends and children?

Just Concerned

Dear Concerned:

It's not a friend's place to talk to her. It's up to her to talk to him! If she didn't want to live this kind of life, she would have done something about it a long time ago.

Some women enjoy being walked on and made a fool of. Don't interfere!

Dear Amy:

Possibly you can answer this question for me. I am a widower and have my own home and have a nice car. I am lonesome and have been going with a widow who has been married three times. I did everything for her I possibly could but she has gone to Florida with another man who is about half-baked, and she lied to me something terrible. What makes people lie like that? I am afraid the law of averages will catch up with her and punish her for telling so many lies.

What can you tell me about such a person who would do such a thing like that?

Lonesome

Dear Lonesome:

In affairs of the heart, a woman lies to cover up the truth and her insincerity.

I don't know about the law of averages, but I'll bet there are other laws which will eventually catch up with her. Pity the poor sucker who will become No. 4, and thank the good Lord it wasn't you!

Dear Amy:

I'm fifteen and a half, a junior in high school with an 'A' average but I have a problem of a girl much older. I am—and want to be—respected by everyone, so I want the correct solution. I'm the oldest of three girls. This means what I do in many ways affects my younger sisters' privileges when they grow up. They are 3 and 4. What I do may also hinder my father's business.

I am in love with a boy whom I have known for three years. Now that he has asked me to marry him, I'm stunned. He doesn't mind waiting two years so that I may finish high school... but I want to go to college. My parents also want me to go. What can I do? I want to marry him, but I also want my parents to be happy with my conduct, success and personal life.

He has a good job and he is awaiting my answer. I have to answer him soon. I asked him to give me a chance to think. I have, but I haven't an answer. Help me!

Wanting to be Mrs.

Dear Wanting:

You are not ready to make a decision now about marriage. Tell this boy as soon as possible. Wait until you graduate high school before you decide whether you want a B.S. or an MRS!

Dear Amy:

Please tell me something: Why doesn't my aunt trust me to baby sit for her? She trusts my sister and she is three years younger than I am. I'm 16 and she is 13. Please tell me what is wrong with me?

Betrayed

Dear Betrayed:

I don't know but your aunt does. Ask her!

PERSONAL to Bride-to-be:

Unless you are prepared to be the wife of a drinking husband, you had better wean him off the bottle or you will have a cry baby on your hands for the rest of your life.

TEXAS FARM LEADER CLAIMS DEMOS OFFER REAL PROGRAM

AUSTIN—A real farm program to guarantee farmers their fair share of the national income is the goal of Democratic candidates and the Democratic party, a Texas farm leader and public official declared this week.

"And we will reach that goal once we get a Democratic administration led by John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson to work with a Democratic Congress after January 1," Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, assistant Texas Democratic campaign director emphasized.

Senator Kennedy's farm program calls for parity of income which gives average producers a return on their invested capital, labor and management equal to that for comparable resources in non-farm employment.

Comm. White, who also serves as chairman of the Texas Farmers for Kennedy-Johnson Committee, pointed out following the Kennedy farm statement that "for the first time in eight long years farmers will have an administration in Washington that offers whole-hearted support and sympathetic understanding instead of adroit opposition to the farmer and his problems."

"For the first time in eight long years, our Texas farmers and others over the nation will be able to look to an administration in Washington determined to use all resources of government to preserve the small, family-type farm which has been the foundation of our agricultural economy," Comm. White continued.

"For the first time in eight long years, the under-cover manipulations in Washington to drive our small farmers off the land and into a hand-to-mouth urban existence will come to an end.

"From my own personal conversations and personal visits with Senator Kennedy, I can pledge to our Texas farmers that he means every word of it when he speaks of our problems with real understanding. Here is a man who knows what he is talking about and stands on our side. Here is a man who can be counted on to do all in his power to do away with the farmers' feeling of apprehension and discouragement when they look in the direction of Washington."

"There is little need for me to show up before Texas farmers as an advocate of Senator Johnson. For 30 years, as we all know, Senator Johnson has been a friend of Texas agriculture and can always be depended upon when Texas farmers need him. He is, in fact, himself a Texas rancher. With a Democratic administration leading a Democratic Congress, we Texas Farmers for Kennedy-Johnson are confident we can at last look for a practical farm view of farm problems in Washington.

"I am convinced that Senator Kennedy is dedicated to his bill of rights for American farmers. This bill of rights carries ten points which get right down to the root-plot issues in Senator Kennedy's own words:

1. A fair share of the national income is the right of every farmer.
2. The family farm, preserved and promoted, is the right of every farmer.
3. Local farmer responsibility for farm policy decisions is the right of every farmer.
4. Farmer bargaining power through protective price supports, loans, commodity agreements, and marketing orders is the right of every farmer.
5. Production adjustment by majority choice is the right of every farmer.
6. Conservation assistance to help him save land, water, and forest resources is the right of every farmer.
7. Low cost credit is the right of every farmer.
8. Scientific protection against plant disease and pesterence is the right of every farmer.

9. An expanded cooperative movement to help farmers escape the cost-price squeeze is the right of every farmer.

10. An expanded REA, with low rates, is the right of every farmer."

Pipers Bounce Back, Maul Childress, 36-14

After a slow start, the Pipers crushed the Childress Bobcats Friday night in their last non-conference contest, 36-14.

After seeing the Bobcats take a 14-0 lead the Pipers rallied late in the first half and went on to completely dominate play in the second half. Picking up their first-down in the second quarter, the Pipers trailed in first downs at the half, 11-5. In the second half they picked up 11 first-downs and held the Bobcats to none.

The strong passing combination of Mike Bond to Jerald McCanlies paid-off again with one touchdown and three conversions. Bond, who also passed to Robert Brandon for a TD, completed nine of 17 passes for 132 yards.

Dave Bellamy led the ground attack of the Pipers, which netted 206 yards, with 88 yards in 10 carries. Joey Ford was second with 58 yards in 11 trips closely followed by Frankie Lee with 49 yards in 10 carries.

Charles Mitchell was leading gainer for the Bobcats with 46 yards in 12 carries.

Childress fumbled on the first play after the kickoff on their 44, but in three plays the Pipers lost four yards and McCanlies punted into the endzone.

From their 20 the Bobcats moved for their first score, with a first-down on the one. Norman Naron made it into the endzone on fourth down. Mitchell cleared his right end for the two points.

After the kick, the Pipers fumbled on third down with the Bobcats taking over on the Pipers 46. Nine plays later, Mitchell went around his right end to score from the five. The attempted pass for the two points failed and the Bobcats were ahead 14-0.

After an exchange of punts the Pipers took the ball on their 41. On the second pass attempt, Bond hit Lee with a short one with Lee picking up good yardage only to have the gain cut to 18 yards because of a clipping penalty and the ball moved back to their 46. Ford gained 16 yards and a first down, then Bond connected with McCanlies for a gain of 18 and Ford picked up two to the 20. Bond dropped back to pass and when he couldn't find a receiver open, ran to the right and with the Childress defenses shifting with him, he spotted Brandon alone in the end zone for the score. Bond passed to McCanlies for the two points making the score 14-8 with only seconds left in the first half.

Hamlin took the second half kick off on their 32 and Ford and Lee each gained two yards. Bond connected with McCanlies with a jump pass good for 20 yards. Bond was set back two yards, threw an incomplete pass and then had his next pass intercepted but the ball was fumbled with Ford recovering on the 25. Bond passed to Jim Cooper for 11 yards and then to Lee for nine yards to the four. Lee carried over his right guard for the six points. His try for two failed and the score was tied 14-14.

After the kick, the two teams exchanged fumbles with Ford recovering the Bobcat's on the 50 from where Bellamy ran to the 24 and Ford carried to the eight where he fumbled with Childress recovering.

The Bobcats lost seven and were held for no gain. They punted on third down from deep in their own end zone to their 41.

Bellamy carried for six and then four and then Lee hit left tackle for 31 yards and the touchdown. Bond passed to McCanlies for the two points.

Hamlin fumbled and lost the ball between two Bobcat punts and then gained possession on their 15. They drove to the Bobcat 31 before giving up the ball on downs.

Childress punted again with the Pipers taking over on their 40. The Pipers were set back by a five yard penalty, Ford carried twice for a total of four yards and then pass interference was ruled against the Bobcats for a 30 yard penalty. Bellamy carried for five, Dan Newberry made two and Childress drew a 15 yard penalty that moved the ball to 12. Bond picked up two, Ford six and then Ford went over his right guard for four yards and the TD. Bond hit McCanlies again for the two points, making the score 30-14.

Failing to gain after the kick, the Bobcats punted to the Pipers 40 where Robert Brandon returned it to the Childress 35 yard line. Bellamy picked up four, Childress was penalized five, and Bond passed to Cooper for 19 yards to the seven. Lee gained one and then McCanlies took a jump pass from Bond for the six yards needed for the final score. Bellamy's try for the two points failed and the score was 36-14.

OUTDOOR IN TEXAS

Its suicide—that's what it is! New Mexico has had 20 hunter casualties so far this year. Full reports are available on 15 of them.

Investigation by the New Mexico Department of Game and Fish shows that 11 of these 15 casualties were self-inflicted. What a shocking revelation!

All the time we've hunted we try to watch out for "the other fellow." This indicates we'd better be more watchful of our own actions.

It's really hard to believe that over half of the fatal shootings are self-inflicted. Makes one stop and think!

If you're interested in your own future, perhaps you'd better read further—because here's how those accidents occurred.

1. Weapon fell.
2. Weapon defective.
3. Removing loaded weapon from vehicle.
4. Discharged while being pulled from holster.
5. Climbing tree with loaded weapon.
6. Gun off safety.
7. Stepped on shell.
8. Tossed gun, which hit rock and discharged. (This one proved fatal.)

All of which prompts our neighbors to the west to remark that "accidents don't just happen—they are caused."

Discharging a firearm in a reckless manner in a hunting area, resulting in injury to another, has caused many a hunter in New Mexico to lose his hunting license—for 10 years.

Such an incident, that results in a fatality in that state, is caused for revocation of hunting privileges—for life.

Texas' legislature would do well to adopt like penalties. The least that can be done is to rid the field of careless hunters. Perhaps this as good a time as any to repeat the 10 Commandments of Safety. Please, for your own good—read and repeat after me:

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun. This is the cardinal rule of gun safety.
2. Guns carried into camp or home must always be unloaded, and taken down or have actions open; guns always should be encased until reaching shooting area.
3. Always be sure that the barrel and action are clear of obstructions.
4. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble. Keep the safety on until you are ready to shoot.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
7. Unattended guns should be unloaded; guns and ammunition should be stored safely beyond reach of children and careless adults.
8. Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat, hard surface or the surface of water.
10. Do not mix gunpowder and alcohol.

We are told that more Texans hunt in New Mexico than New Mexicans hunt in their own state. If this be true, then it's highly possible that a number of those New Mexico casualties were Texans.

But, wherever you hunt—let's be more careful!

MAJOR ENGINEERING INNOVATIONS HIGHLIGHT 1961 LINE OF 'CLASSIC' RAMBLER SERIES

Major engineering innovations highlight the 1961 line of Rambler Six and V-8 models announced today by American Motors. The new models of the automobile that touched off the compact car revolution will be designated the "Classic" series, and went on sale yesterday according to Roy Abernathy, vice-president of automotive distribution and marketing.

The Rambler is on display at Carmichael Buick Company.

The Rambler Classic Six features a new six-cylinder engine with a die-cast aluminum block, the first aluminum engine block produced in America for passenger car use by the die-cast method. The new engine weighs 80 pounds less than the comparable cast iron engine on the 1960 Rambler and provides new ease of handling and steering, Abernathy said.

"The new aluminum-block engine represents a major breakthrough in lightweight automotive design," he said. "Production was preceded by more than six years of American Motors' design experience with die-cast aluminum engines and the development of specialized production facilities costing more than five million dollars."

"This advanced Rambler Six engine has undergone more than two million miles of actual driving tests on proving ground, highway and speed track, and has demonstrated outstanding characteristics of ruggedness, efficiency and durability. In addition, its up-front position permits maximum realization of the full benefits of lightweight engine design. Among these are better balance and weight distribution, greater stability, and easier handling."

The aluminum block engine is the result of a cooperative research and development program between American Motors and the Doehler-Jarvis Division of the National Lead Company, which will perform the die-casting operation in its Toledo, Ohio plant.

The die-cast block is made of special aluminum-silicon alloy for hardness and controlled temperature expansion. Centrally cast iron cylinder liners are chemically and mechanically bonded to the block.

Hydraulic valve lifters are used to assure quiet valve operation under all conditions. A newly designed oil pump eliminates the possibility of hydraulic lock and provides proper pressure calibration. A full-flow oil filter is supplied as standard equipment.

Improved economy and performance result from a redesigned intake manifold which provides increased fuel-air velocity. Exhaust valves are the same sturdy design as other American Motors engines. The crankshaft is completely counterbalanced for smooth, vibrationless performance.

During the development stage the aluminum blocks were exhaustively tested by the latest aircraft industry method of using cemented plastic with polarized light to establish static and dynamic stress points.

Horsepower of the Rambler Classic Six remains at 127; the Classic V-8 is rated at 200 horsepower. Power-pack options are available on both. Regular grade gasoline is recommended for all models.

The District 17 Young Women's Association Council will have its annual meeting Monday October 17, at 7 p.m. in the University Baptist Church in Abilene, Texas. Mrs. Truett Hicks, who visited South America this past summer, will be the speaker.

JOHN WOMBLE NAMED HEAD OF AREA DEMOS FOR NIXON DRIVE

John Womble, Abilene businessman and civic leader, has accepted appointment as chairman of the 24th State Senatorial District for the Texas Democrats for Nixon-Lodge campaign, it was announced today.

Womble's appointment was made by former Governor Allan Shivers, state chairman of the Nixon-Lodge campaign among the Democrats.

Womble said today that heavy emphasis would be laid during the campaign in his district on the socialistic aspects of the Kennedy platform as compared with Texans' philosophy of government.

"The Kennedy platform is for nearly everything Texans are against, and against nearly everything Texans are for," he said.

"I agree wholeheartedly with former Governor Shivers that this country cannot afford to wander off with Kennedy and his 'new frontiers' when the world is on fire and needs experience and maturity at the helm."

Womble said he, like thousands of other Texans were convinced that the platform on which the Kennedy-Johnson ticket was basing its campaign would lead to a further concentration of federal government power and a weakening of local and state governments.

"The most sensible approach to our problems today can be found in the State Democratic platform, adopted a few weeks ago in Dallas, which is in direct conflict with and repudiates the Kennedy platform."

"And in accepting this appointment I am happy to be able to say I support the principles and purposes of the State Democratic platform, as directed by our Texas delegates to the State convention."

The 24th district embraces the following counties: Borden, Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Dickens, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Howard, Mitchell, Noland and Taylor.

Which Democratic Platform?

Which do you prefer: the socialistic, anti-Texas platform of Kennedy — or the Nixon Platform that more nearly conforms with Texas principles and ideals as expressed in the State Democratic platform?

The Kennedy platform is against nearly everything Texans are for—it is for nearly everything Texans are against.

What will be your choice? It is between a party label and the best interest of Texas and the Nation.

Allan Shivers says:

"I'LL TAKE TEXAS. I accept the Texas Democratic platform and will work for it. I repudiate the other—the Kennedy platform. I will join with my fellow Democrats to work and vote for men of maturity, experience, responsibility, and a fearless dedication to this country's best interests."

"I will vote for Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge."

MOLLY BEE STARS COMEDY WITH MUSIC COMING TO FERGUSON

Pretty and talented 20-year-old Molly Bee, who stars with Ben Cooper and Edgar Buchanan in "Chartroose Caboose," sparkling new comedy with music, coming to the Ferguson Theatre Sunday, confesses that her name isn't quite that simple.

Her actual name is Mollie Jene Beachboard, the young recording star and actress admits. But it's been Molly Bee since she began her career as a singing performer, and she's certainly been living up to her new last name by being a very busy young lady.

A radio artist at the age of ten, a recording star just a few years later, and a television personality at 15, Molly is making her third motion picture appearance in "Chartroose Caboose."

Born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, she's part Choctaw Indian and part English by ancestry, and started singing country music with record star Rex Allen on his radio show in Tucson, Arizona, shortly before her tenth birthday. When her father, who was in the trucking and lumber business there, passed away, Molly moved with her mother and brothers to Hollywood.

Then the honey blonde's career really began to buzz when TV singer Cliffie Stone heard the little girl with the big voice and braids singing "Lovesick Blues." She was featured on his show, and in a short time was signed to a recording contract, and her discs have all been big sellers throughout the nation.

A television veteran for the past ten years, Molly Bee probably has been seen across the nation more often than any other performer. For two and a half years she sang on Tennessee Ernie Ford's daily show, and prior to that a similar month stint with Pinkie Ino. Besides having her own radio show for 18 months, the singer actress has been regularly featured on the networks' top variety shows.

"Chartroose Caboose" marks Molly's third motion picture role since she made her film debut in "Summer Love," which was followed by "Going Steady."

In this latest dramatic effort in which she sings two songs hits, Molly is linked romantically with Ben Cooper, with both youngsters being nudged by veteran performer Ed Buchanan, who makes his home in the colorful freight car from which the comedy gets its title.

Filmed in Panavision and Color, "Chartroose Caboose" features Slim Pickens, O. Z. Whitehead and 11-year-old Mickey McGreevey. The Red-Bill production, directed by William "Red" Reynolds, is a Universal International release.
